Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Vert Voigt and Doris Ludens exchanged their wedding vows on September 7, 1956, at the Emmanuel Reformed Church in Springfield, South Dakota, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newlywed couple of 50 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Vert and Doris have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, Vert and Doris will celebrate their 50th Anniversary with all the good wishes, fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants as their family and friends gather to honor the special couple at an open house on August 12, 2006; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable occasions in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 7, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
